

MEDICAL DEVICE AND DIAGNOSTIC SECTOR

Your partner in devices talent management

Korn Ferry's Medical Device and Diagnostics Sector is your partner in meeting the unique requirements of the industry now and into the future.

Given the full range of challenges in medical device and diagnostics, from a focus on outcomes and economic efficiency, to the changing nature of emerging markets, we have in-depth expertise and experience. Our sole focus is in the device and diagnostics sector, while also tapping into the full resources of Korn Ferry.

OUR EXPERIENCE

We serve the entirety of the device industry, from pre-revenue start-up, to the Fortune 500. We provide comprehensive expertise that is tailored to the specific need at hand. With an average experience level of 20 years, our partners have the breadth and industry knowledge needed to quickly and successfully identify the right talent, for the right role.

OUR CAPABILITIES

We offer a full range of leadership and talent solutions that include:

- Strategic workforce planning
- Job design
- Rewards and benefits
- Executive and professional search
- Key role market mapping
- RPO, assessments
- Leadership development
- Succession planning

From an industry perspective, our focus is on serving client companies that develop, manufacture, and market products classified as medical devices, Class I through III. Our work is global and so are our dedicated device colleagues. In addition, we call upon the expertise of our specialty practices, which includes functional areas such as Supply Chain, Information Technology, etc. We have deep expertise in the recruitment of non-medical device executives.
